

19 February 2009

Question:

My Performance Appraisal is coming up this year. I want to use a different appraisal method rather than the Student Appraisal of Teaching. How is this done?

Answer:

Performance Appraisals normally are scheduled bi-annually for full-time Faculty.

You may choose

- Student Appraisal of Teaching
- Self-assessment
- Portfolio

A more detailed description on Performance Appraisal is found in the College Intranet

<https://www2.conestogac.on.ca/conestoga/web/ccintranet/login.jsp>.

- Login with your User Name and Password
 - Click on the following links;
 - § Human Resources
 - Academic Staff.

You will find two .pdf forms related to the Academic Appraisal process;

- Guidelines for Completing Performance Appraisal, and
- Academic Performance Appraisal Form.

The Guidelines form identifies the three assessment methods.

Choose which method you wish to use and tell your supervisor which method you wish to use for your appraisal.

Submitted by:
John Innanen, Chief Steward