3.2 Qualifications:

All members of the Executive and Officers of Local 237 must be in good standing with OPSEU/SEFPO in order to hold office.

3.2.1 A Member shall remain in good standing provided s/he is:

- a) Not more than three months in arrears in payment of dues;
- b) Gainfully employed in a bargaining unit for which the Union holds or seeks recognized bargaining rights;
- c) Not penalized by suspension or expulsion following conviction under Article 30 of the Constitution; and
- d) Not penalized by suspension or expulsion following conviction of a breach of OPSEU/SEFPO's harassment and discrimination or personal harassment policy, provided that in accordance with any applicable laws, no such penalty shall require the employer to discharge such Member from employment.
- e) Not penalized by suspension under Article 16.10 of the Constitution.
- f) Not penalized by failure to step down from an acting management or acting excluded management position under Article 3.8.

However, failure to meet the requirements of (a) or (b) above shall not disqualify Members who are absent from their regular place of employment on leave of absence, paid or unpaid.

"Leave of absence" shall include sabbatical leave, long-term disability, maternity leave, parental leave, workers' compensation, and any other form of extended leave of absence while remaining in the employ of the employer. Members on long-term disability, and members on workers' compensation who do not meet the requirements of (a), may seek and hold office in the Union or any of its subsidiary bodies, and may be delegates to Union meetings, provided they pay uniform monthly dues, not to exceed $5.00, to be set by the Executive Board, and are both able and available to carry out their duties. Members on other leaves of absence may seek and hold office in the Union or any of its subsidiary bodies, and may be delegates to Union meetings, provided they pay full Union dues and are both able and available to carry out their duties. Any dispute as to ability or availability shall be decided by the President, with right of appeal to the Executive Board.

- 3.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of any other article of this Constitution, a Member subject to regular seasonal and/or short-term lay-offs may remain in good standing for up to one year while laid off without payment of dues, but a Member subject to permanent or indefinite lay-off shall not be eligible for continuing membership for any period of the lay-off.
- 3.4 Notwithstanding the provision of Articles 3.1(b) and 3.2, a Member dismissed or improperly laid off by his/her employer shall, if a grievance is submitted on the dismissal or lay-off, remain a Member in good standing until the grievance is settled, provided that if the Member wishes to seek or hold office in the Union, s/he must pay a uniform monthly amount of Union dues, not to exceed $5, to be set by the Executive Board.
- 3.5 Notwithstanding the provision of Article 3.1(b), upon payment of full Union dues a Member shall remain in good standing while:
- a) holding elected political office in any government, municipality, municipal board or commission, school board, public utility, social or welfare agency; or
  - b) holding appointed office on any board or commission, etc., as a representative of labour; or
  - c) holding elected or appointed office in any labour organization to which the Union is affiliated.
- 3.6 A person who ceases to be a Member by reason only of non-payment of dues shall be reinstated upon submission to the Union of a new membership application accompanied by all arrears in dues.
- 3.7 A Shop Steward, local officer, trustee, delegate, team or committee member who is temporarily assigned (seconded) by the employer from his/her normal workplace to another workplace within the bargaining unit, and who retains the right to return to his/her normal workplace, shall be entitled to continue to hold or seek re-election to the Union office or function in his/her normal workplace during the term of such assignment (secondment), provided s/he is willing, able and available to carry out the duties of the Union office or function. Any dispute as to ability or availability shall be decided by the President, with right of appeal to the Executive Board. While occupying such Union office or function, the member shall be ineligible to seek or hold any Union office or function in the other workplace.
- 3.8 A shop Steward, local officer, trustee, delegate, team or committee member who volunteers and is assigned or seconded by the employer from his/her normal workplace to a position outside any OPSEU/SEFPO bargaining unit shall not be entitled to continue to carry out the duties or functions of his/her office during the period of assignment or secondment. The Member shall be entitled to retain all other rights as a Member in Good Standing.

3.9 Any member who is in a temporary management or temporary excluded management position shall return to their home position when required, under authority of the President, to do so. If they fail to step down, they shall be ineligible to seek or hold any Union office or function.

Article 4 MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS (Article 7 of the Constitution)

4.1 Every Member in good standing is entitled:

- a) To be represented by the Union;
- b) To be treated with dignity and respect within the Union;
- c) To be free from discrimination, interference, restriction, coercion, harassment, intimidation or disciplinary action exercised or practised by a Member with respect to another Member, both within the Union and in the workplace, by reason of race, colour, age, national or ethnic origin, political or religious affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, family status, marital status, record of offences, physical characteristics or physical or mental disability;
- d) Subject to any qualifications stipulated elsewhere in this Constitution, to be nominated for, and hold, one or more offices in the Union;
- e) To participate in the Union's business at the Local level, participate in the election of delegates and alternate delegates to Conventions, and vote on the ratification of collective agreements affecting such Member, except where the collective agreement is the result of binding arbitration;
- f) To make a formal presentation to the Board upon receipt of such presentation in writing at Headquarters not less than ten (10) calendar days before the date of the regularly scheduled Board Meeting at which the presentation is to be made, provided always that notice may be waived by majority vote of the Board;
- g) To attend any meeting of the Board, notwithstanding that s/he may not have a vote at such meeting, except that the Board may meet in closed session for purposes of discussing individual or staff contracts of employment;
- h) To receive a copy of the Constitution of the Union and to be advised of amendments to it, and to receive an up-to-date copy whenever the Constitution is compiled and reprinted.

4.2 Only Members in good standing may hold office.

4.3 A member may be removed from office and/or barred from running for office for a specified term by a two-thirds majority vote of the Executive Board after a finding of a breach of OPSEU/SEFPO's harassment and discrimination or personal harassment policy.

4.4 A member will be removed from office and will be barred from running for office if they refuse to return to their OPSEU/SEFPO bargaining unit position from an acting management or excluded management position when required, under authority of the President, to do so.

4.5 Proxy voting is not permitted at any level of the Union.

8. HARDSHIP COMMITTEE

~~Where a budget line for Hardship has been approved by the Local 237 General Membership, the following procedures shall apply.~~

~~These procedures do not apply during a strike. A separate Strike Hardship Committee is established in the event of a strike.~~

Purpose of the Expense

~~To provide financial assistance for members in good standing who find themselves in dire circumstances.~~

Local Hardship Committee

~~The Local Hardship expenses will be overseen by four members to be elected at the same time as the elections for Local Officers (every 2 years). Two of the members shall be stewards (from different schools/departments) and two members shall not be stewards or trustees. Alternates may be elected.~~

Expenses

~~The Committee members are responsible for establishing and amending the criteria for access to hardship funds. The criteria must then be approved by the LEC (Local Stewards) prior to the consideration of any applications.~~

~~Decisions made by the committee shall be by majority. If required, the Local President can make a decision in the event of a tie. The Committee shall inform the Local Officers and the Applicant of their decision in writing. Only the Local Treasurer and one other signing officer (President or First Vice President) are able to disburse the funds and know the name of the members.~~

~~No decision by the Committee shall result in the Hardship budget line being exceeded. Where funds are insufficient, requests for funds must be made to the LEC and/or General Membership as required by OPSEU/SEFPO policy.~~

Member Access to the Funds

~~Access to the hardship funds will be through an application or recommendation process to the President. Written applications (without the member's name) or recommendations will be reviewed by the Local Hardship Committee to determine eligibility for assistance under the stated criteria and the amount to be granted. Where necessary, receipts, invoices, or proof of need should accompany the application. Confidentiality of member information will be maintained at all times during the process.~~

~~Each request for assistance is measured against the criteria. When a request does not fall within the criteria for assistance the Committee will, through the President notify the Applicant in writing. If the member qualifies for assistance the Committee will next determine the amount to be given based on the need and budget. In making its decision the Committee will take into consideration the type of hardship and the duration of the hardship.~~

~~Applications may be submitted at any time during the current fiscal year and funding will be applied against the budget for that year.~~

~~It is up to the General Membership, upon recommendation from the LEC, to determine the amount allocated to the Hardship budget. Unused amounts are not carried over to the next budget year.~~
